SECTION A: EFFECTIVE TEAMS

CRITERION	1 (Beginning)	2 (Developing)	3 (Accomplished)	4 (Exemplary)	Evidence (examples)
A1. Educators work in collaboration.	The team is at the forming stage of team development. Roles/responsibilities are not defined.	The team is at the storming stage of team development. Roles/responsibilities are not clearly defined.	The team is at the norming stage of team development. Roles/responsibilities are defined at each meeting.	The team is at the performing and adjourning stage of team development. Roles and responsibilities are defined at each meeting and applied across the system.	Meeting agendas Meeting schedule Team meeting minutes with defined actions Self-assessment survey results or video of team process
A2. Educators work in leadership teams and have regularly scheduled meetings to support their work.	Less than 25% of recommended members* participate on the team. Meetings are rarely held or not at all. Participants are present but lack engagement.	26-50% of recommended members* participate on the team. Meetings are scheduled but held occasionally. Participants are present and engagement is active or passive based on level of interest.	51-89% of recommended members* participate on the team. Meetings are held according to the prescribed schedule. Participants are present and engaged by asking thoughtful questions and responding to comments.	90-100% of recommended members* participate on the team. Meetings are held according to a prescribed schedule. Participants are present and engaged by asking thoughtful questions and responding to comments. A4. Teams have a communication structure and approach.	Teams informally communicate within their own team.	Teams communicate within their own teams using formal means (e.g., minutes of meetings, forms/procedures).	Teams communicate within and across teams using formal means (e.g., minutes of meetings, forms/procedures).	Teams have forms/procedures for formally communicating their work within and across the system (district and building, horizontally and vertically, internal and external stakeholders – within all levels of the organization)	Communication approach within IMM Evidence consistent with communication approach, e.g., notes, newsletters, emails, wikki, SharePoint, Google docs

C13. Step 1: Collect and Chart Assessment Data Aligned to Standards	Data is not assembled. A common pre-test/formative assessment is not used. No rubric/scoring guides exist.	Some teachers bring data to meetings. A common pre-test/formative data is used inconsistently.  There are rubric/scoring guides with defined benchmarks but not agreed to by all team members.	Most teachers organize data prior to meeting using forms and protocols.  Common assessments aligned to standards are given to ALL students at that level at least quarterly (e.g., SWD, ELL, Title I). Membership of the DLT should include individuals with key positions at the various levels of the organization, for example: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Superintendent;</li> <li>○ Local school board member;</li> <li>○ Treasurer;</li> <li>○ Building-level administrators;</li> <li>○ Teacher leaders from various content areas, grade levels, buildings, and specialized instructional areas, (e.g., special education, gifted, limited English proficient);</li> <li>○ Program directors/supervisors (e.g., special education, curriculum, preschool, health and nutrition, safety, Family and Civic Engagement coordinator);</li> <li>○ Family and Civic Engagement Team representing parents, local businesses, health and human service and community organizations, such as , Head Start director/education manager, community preschool program director; and</li> <li>○ Representatives from groups such as teacher bargaining units.</li> </ul>	Membership of the BLT should include individuals with key positions at the various levels of the organization who may be representative of the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>○ Principal/building level administrator(s);</li> <li>○ Teachers who represent all grade-levels or grade-spans, early childhood, general education, special education and English Language Learners (ELL) including all subgroups;</li> <li>○ Non-administrative staff who serve in a leadership position, e.g., literacy coach, math coach, after school coordinator, parent liaison;</li> <li>○ Non-certified staff, e.g., secretaries, custodial and maintenance staff, food services staff;</li> <li>○ Stakeholders representing parents, local businesses and/or community organizations, such as a community program that serves children and families who will transition into the elementary building;</li> <li>○ Teacher union representation; and</li> <li>○ Central office/DLT liaison or ad hoc members.</li> </ul>	TBTs are most often comprised of groups of educators who teach the same grade or the same content area. For example, an elementary school may have teacher-based teams at each grade level. Intervention specialists supporting the needs of students with disabilities are regular members of these teams. Teacher Based Teams (TBT) should also include representation from district supported early childhood classrooms within the elementary building. Highly effective district TBTs will also include teachers from community preschool programs who serve children that directly feed into the elementary building; this may include Head Start teachers, childcare, and family home providers. In middle schools and high schools, TBTs may center on specific content areas within existing department structures. TBTs may also be arranged vertically across grade levels or across disciplines to provide continuity of focus in instruction, curriculum, and assessment.

**B6 – Goal, Strategy and Action Step Descriptors

SMART Goals

Specific

- The goal describes in action words what the district wants to accomplish.
- The goal is clear about what the district intends to do for all students and designated student populations.

Measurable

- The goal identifies the annual target and multi-year indicator of what the district will see annually and when it reaches the goal.
- The goal ensures there are data that will be collected to demonstrate appreciable change (in quantity or quality) that can be calculated.

Attainable and Achievable

- The goal stretches the district to improve yet it is possible to attain.
- The goal targets the population(s) that data show is in greatest need.

Realistic and Relevant

- The bar is set high enough for significant achievement.
- The goal is the most important and significant aspiration of the district to improve student learning.

Timely

- The goal has an end point.
- The time frame for accomplishment of the goal is realistic.

Strategies

- The strategies are focused and address the core of the goal.
- The strategies are achievable, feasible, reasonable and practical (i.e., time, skill, knowledge, and culture can support them).
- The strategies are the right grain size (i.e., not so broad that it is a goal but not so narrow that it is an action or task).
- The strategies have a sufficient research base.
- The strategies respond to the prioritized data needs and cause and effect analysis.
- The strategies are written so they can be understood by stakeholders (i.e., clear, jargon-free language, able to stand on its own without additional explanation).
- The goal will likely to be achieved if the strategies are implemented with fidelity.
- There are a reasonable number of strategies for the goal (two to four).
- If applicable, the strategies respond to the needs of the student populations for which the goal is directed.
- The strategies can be applied in multiple settings (e.g., elementary schools, secondary schools or district departments).

Action Steps

- The action steps are backed by evidence of effectiveness.
- The actions identify the monitoring evidence/data sources that will be used to document implementation.
- The actions identify who is responsible for implementation, the timeline for implementation of the actions and the resources needed to execute the actions.
- There are a reasonable number of actions for each strategy (no more than 10).
- The actions will reach a critical mass of targeted school staff, students and/or facilities.
- Given the goal of improving student performance, the benefits of each action outweigh the costs, i.e., time, number of people, money, materials, supplies, technology.
- The set of actions allow the district to accomplish its goals and strategies and enable the district to meet the plan indicators.
- The actions, taken as a whole, are coherent and aligned.

***B8, B9 – Indicator Descriptors

Indicators

- Valid, reliable and accurate data are available for the indicators.
- The data are understandable and meaningful.
- The indicator measures are practical, relevant and realistic.
- The indicators measure the effective implementation of the strategy.
- There is assigned responsibility for collecting, organizing, analyzing and interpreting the data.
- The data provide an early warning of any potential problems.
- The indicators are capable of being monitored to provide statistically verifiable and reproducible data that show changes over time.
- The indicators and data contribute to the fulfillment of reporting obligations under federal and state requirements.
